

The Computer Society of Kenya

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY REPORT ICT MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE HELD AT LEISURE LODGE RESORT – 1-3 OCTOBER, 2014

The 3rd annual ICT Management and Leadership Conference was held 1-3 October, 2014 under the auspices of the Computer Society of Kenya. The conference was attended by professionals from a wide spectrum of sectors and industries, including the public and private sector, manufacturers, banking and finance, international organizations, agricultural, research, cooperatives, media, governmental and non governmental organizations.

Expert speakers addressed the meeting. Amongst the topics covered were: Corporate Governance of Information Technology; Big Data Analytics and Cloud Computing; Best Practices in TLS; CACSP; Communications as a Service; Off-site Data Automation; Embracing Android; JANUSIAN⁷ Measuring the Success of IS Investments; Mobile Security; Moving the Contact Centre to the Cloud; Outsourcing Infrastructure; Oversight Framework; PKI; Software Development - Continuous Delivery; The Business Data Lake; Transforming Business Performance with Hybrid Networks; and Why Organizations Should Go Paperless.

In addition the presentations were enhanced by those from industry: Power: The 5th Element of Converged IT Infrastructure (EATON); Transitioning Large Enterprises to the Cloud (GE); BYOD (GE); Going Paperless (COSEKE); Live EDMS Solution (Laptrust); Developing Cloud Strategy Using Azure (Microsoft).

The main aim of the training was for professionals to meet, be updated on and discuss the latest developments in the technological and management spheres of ICT. The meeting enabled participants an opportunity to learn from industry leaders and amongst themselves. All the aims of the meeting were met and the participants rated it a success in their feedback submissions.

As organizers we are confident that those who attended the training will bring much value addition to their organizations through what they gained.

Finally, we you would like to thank you for supporting the event and we look forward to you experiencing the value addition your efforts will bring.

Yours Sincerely,
Waudu Siganga, Ph.D. Chairman